Bryan L Viray

PhD student at the Austrian National University's Research
School of Humanities and the Arts,
College of Arts and Social Sciences

THEATER

Mr. Bryan L. Viray is conducting research on how people of Marinduque commemorate the Battles of Paye (in Boac town) and Pulang Lupa (in Torrijos town) in the context of the Filipino- American War. This research seeks to know how collective memories of local communities are generated and transmitted through different commemorative activities, and understand how these may act as intangible heritage. His project title is 'Commemoration as Intangible Heritage: Performing Collective Memories of the Fil-Am War.
